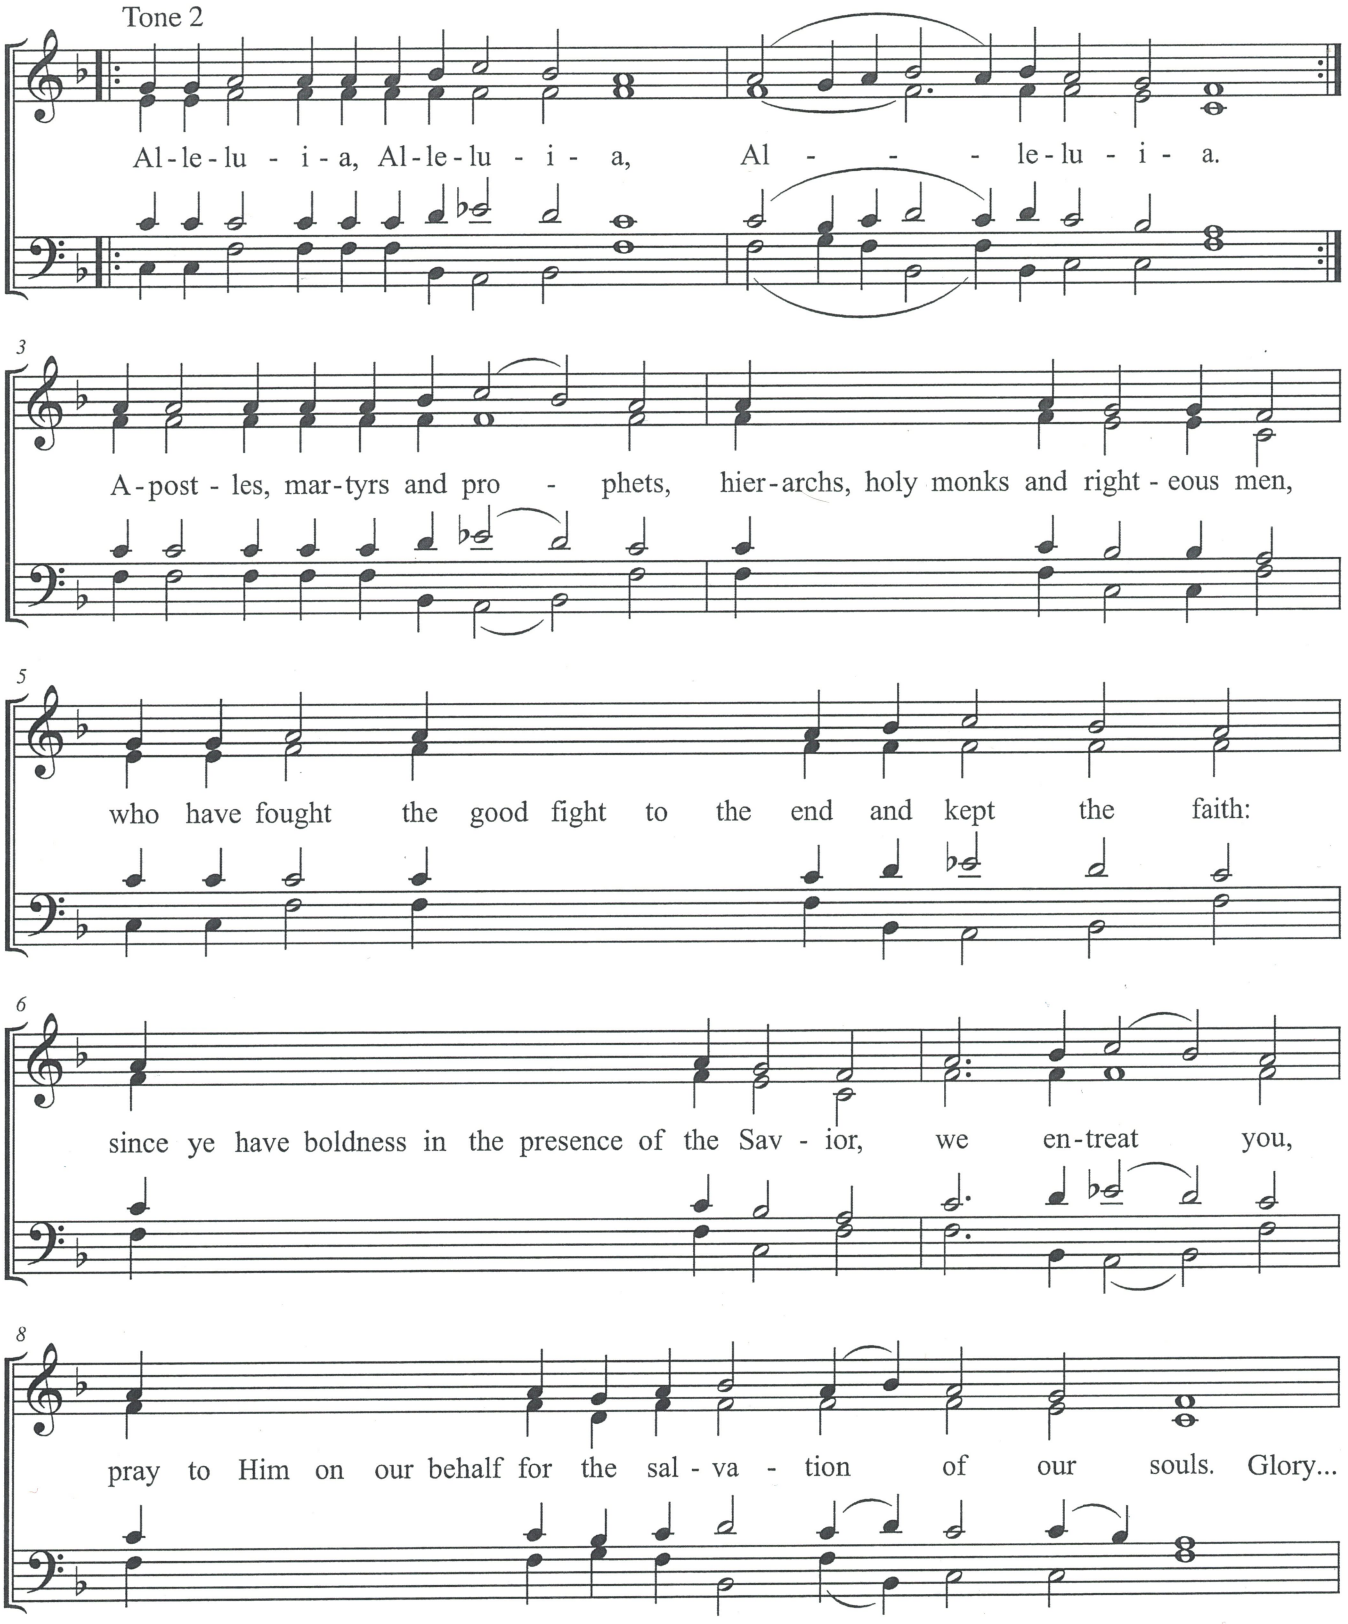
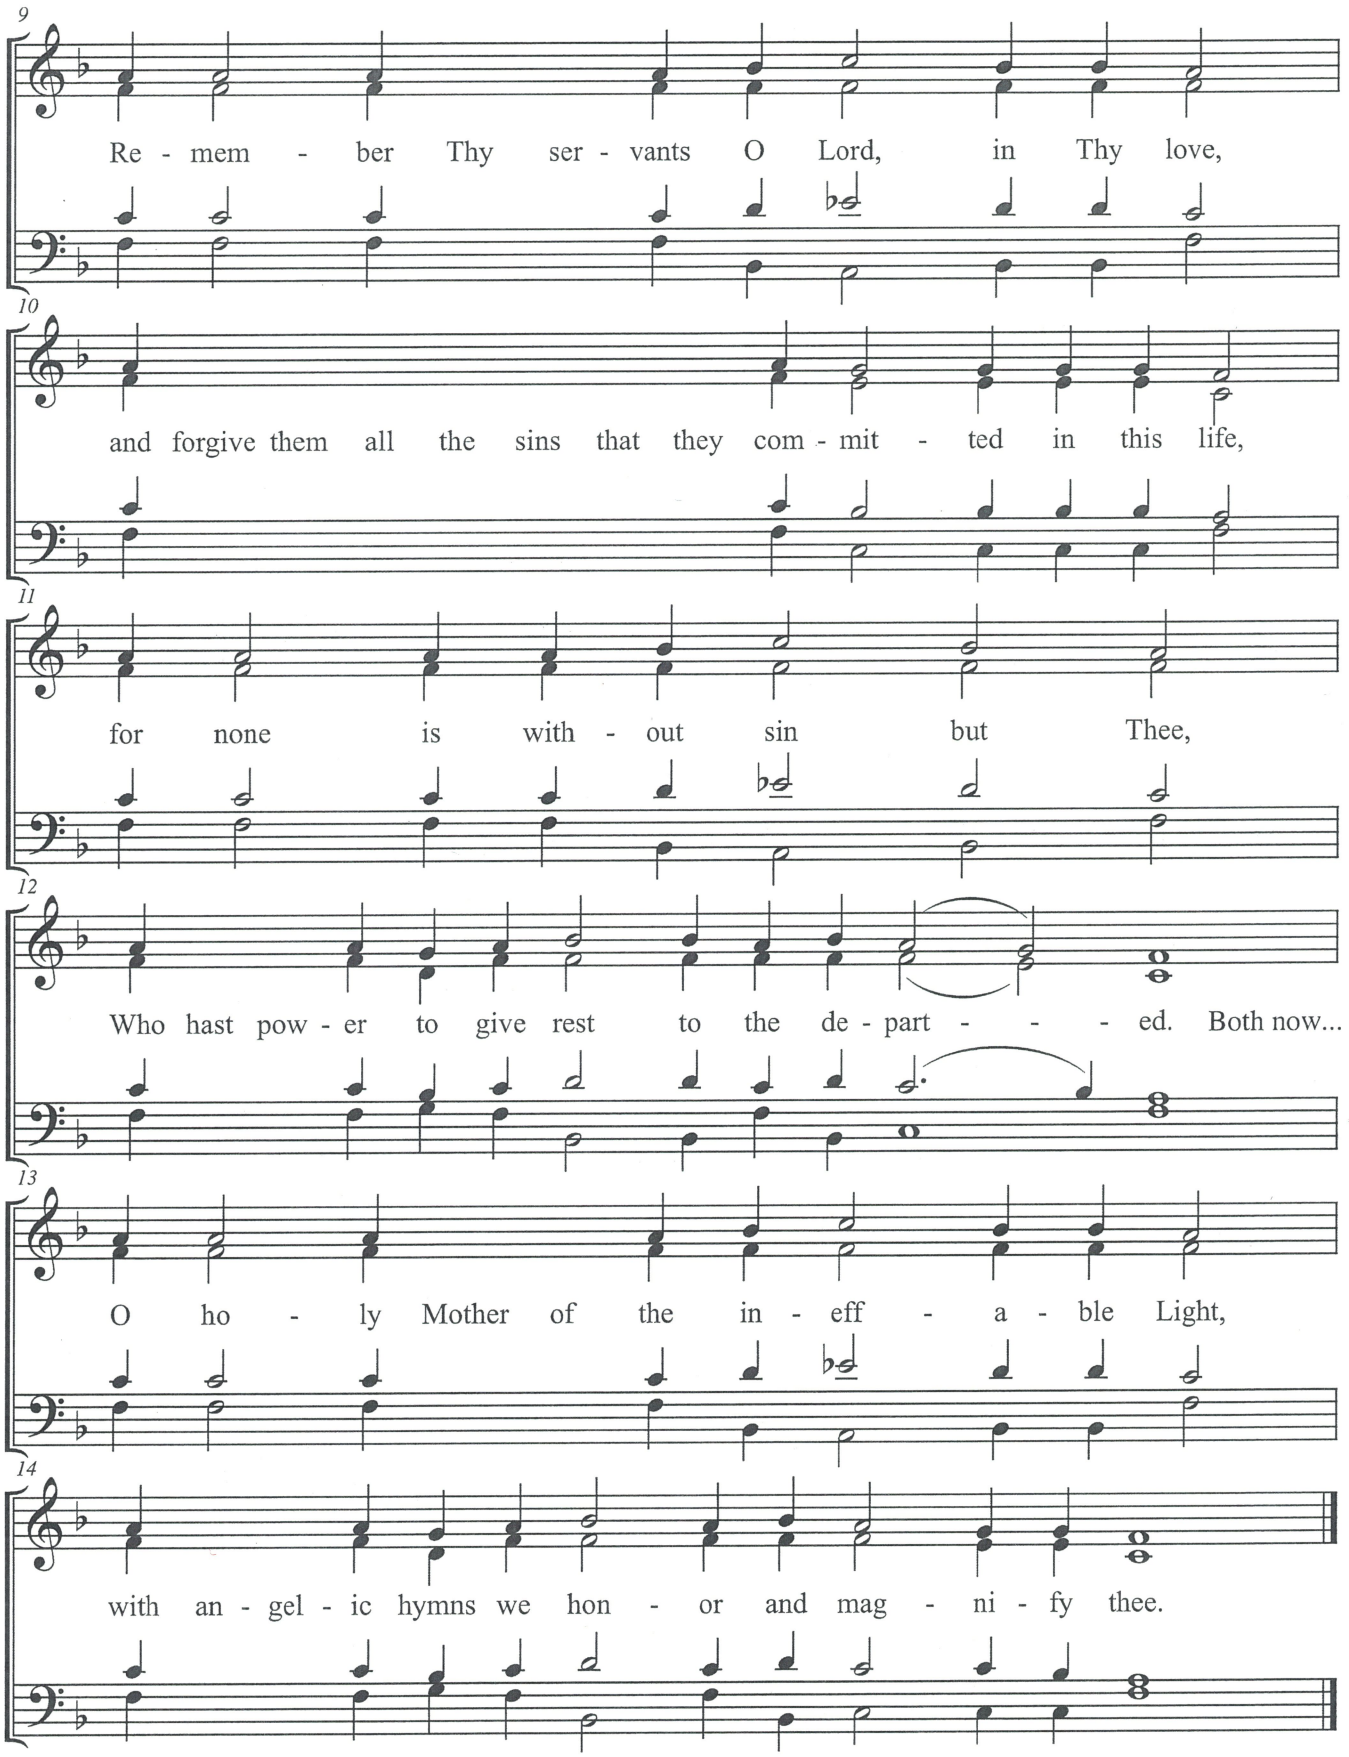
2nd, 3rd and 4th Saturdays in Great Lent:





9
Re - mem - ber Thy ser - vants O Lord, in Thy love, 10
and forgive them all the sins that they com - mit - ted in this life, 11
for none is with - out sin but Thee, 12
Who hast pow - er to give rest to the de - part - - - ed. Both now...
13
O ho - ly Mother of the in - eff - a - ble Light, 14
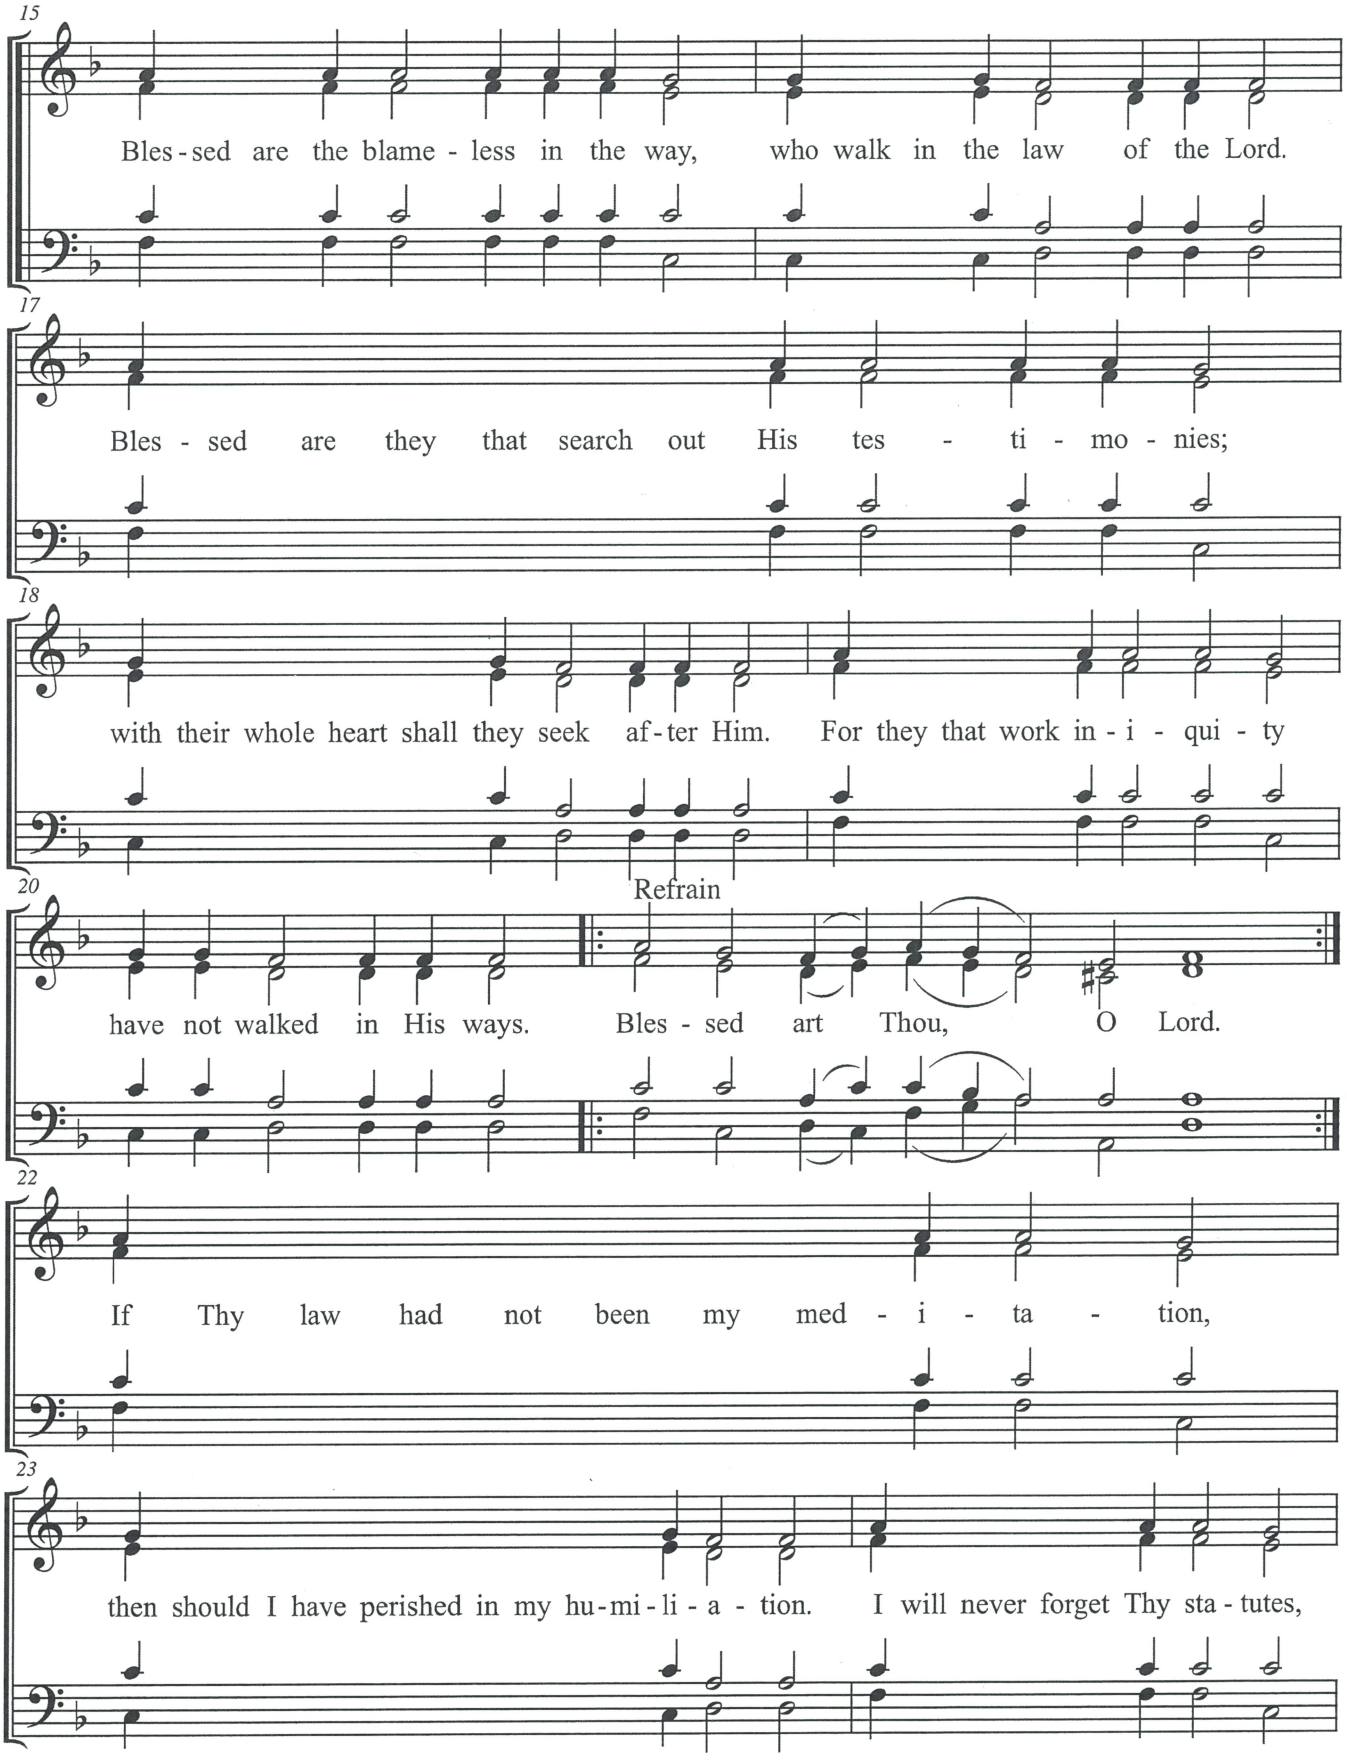
with an - gel - ic hymns we hon - or and mag - ni - fy thee.



15
Bles - sed are the blame - less in the way, who walk in the law of the Lord.
17
Bles - sed are they that search out His tes - ti - mo - nies;
18
with their whole heart shall they seek af - ter Him. For they that work in - i - qui - ty 20
Refrain
have not walked in His ways. Bles - sed art Thou, O Lord.
22
If Thy law had not been my med - i - ta - tion, 23
then should I have perished in my hu - mi - li - a - tion. I will never forget Thy sta - tutes, for in them hast Thou quick - ened me. Bles - sed art Thou, O Lord.

25
Small Litany for the Departed
27
I am Thine, save me; for after Thy sta - tutes have I sought.
29
Sin - ners have waited to de - stroy me; but Thy testimonies have I un - der - stood.
Refrain
31
Save me, O Sav - - ior. My soul shall live and shall praise Thee, 33
and Thy judgments will help me. I have gone astray like a sheep that is lost; 35
O seek Thy servant, for I have not forgotten Thy com - mand - ments.
'Blessed art Thou, O Lord' from Panihida

Troparia at the Entrance
Glory... With the saints give rest O
37
Christ, to the souls of Thy ser - - - - vants, 38
where there is nei - ther sick - - - - ness, 39
nor sor - row, nor sigh - ing, but life ev - er-last - ing.
41
Tone 8: Both now...
In thee we have a wall and a ha - ven,
42
and an in - ter - ces - sor ac - ceptable to God Whom thou didst bear,
