Ode 5

I seek Thee ear - ly in the mor - ning, O Word of God;

for in Thy ten - der mer - cy t'wards fal - - - len man, with - out chang - ing Thou hast emp - tied Thy - self,

and im - pas - sib - ly Thou hast submitted to Thy Pas - - - sion.

Grant me Thy peace, O Lord Who lov - est man - kind.

Kontakion, Tone 8 (Kastalsky)

7 Slowly

Come, and let us all sing the prais - es of Him Who was cru - ci - fied for us.

8

For Ma - ry said, when she be - held Him on the Tree:

9

'Though Thou dost en - dure the Cross, yet Thou art my Son and God.'

10 Ikos Ending: Ode 8

Thou art my Son and God.   The ho - ly Chil - dren brought mockery upon the idol of un - god - ly wick - ed - ness;

and the law - less San - he - - - drin

raged and took vain coun-sel a-gainst Christ, in-tend-ing to kill Him

Who holds life in the hol-low of His hand. The whole cre-a-tion bles - ses Him, and glo - ri - fies Him un - to all ag - - - - es.

Ode 9

More hon - 'ra - ble than the Che - ru - bim 20

and beyond com - pare more glo - ri - ous than the Se - ra - phim;

21

who with - out cor - rup - tion gavest birth to God the Word,

the ve - ry The - o - to - kos, thee do we mag - - - ni - fy.
